In 2014, the breakage has been repaired. Images of 2014 show that the breakage has been repaired. Lower Juba River Breakages. Lower Juba Region

DEM confirms the vulnerability of this point, probably used as a canal for branching from this area, indicating that previous major floods took place from here.

Breakages 2014

Legend

Closed
Open
Potential

Map Produced by: The Somalia Water and Land Information Management and is funded by the European Commission with co-funding provided by SWALIM is implemented by the United Nation’s Food & Agriculture Organization and the European Commission with co-funding provided by EU/ACP.